Disclaimer Clause

Welcome to the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater 2023-2024 Undergraduate and Graduate Catalog. Prior versions of this catalog were two-year publications and are available online at <http://www.uww.edu/registrar/course-catalogs/>. This catalog contains information about academic and student life programs and policies. It also includes links to external websites; these are provided as a convenience to the reader and the content contained therein is not part of the catalog.

UW-Whitewater reserves the right to change without notice tuition, fees, programs, policies, requirements, or regulations published in this catalog. Students are advised to consult with their individual college or department for the most up-to-date information about program requirements, and should consult the University's Student Handbook for the most current statements of non-academic University policy.
