

CROSSMAN GALLERY EXHIBITIONS

The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater's art gallery, located in the Greenhill Center of the Arts, is a showcase for the campus, with exhibits that have both student and public appeal. The Crossman Gallery serves the Department of Art and Design, UW-Whitewater, and the community by providing a dedicated space for the exhibition of art works and related educational activities. By facilitating the exhibition of distinctive works of art, the gallery offers students, faculty and community visitors an opportunity to enjoy and study a variety of art expressions in a free, accessible and open environment.

The Crossman Gallery also serves as an extension of the educational mission of UW-Whitewater by enabling students to exhibit their work and conduct research into the objects presented throughout the year in the exhibition series. The exhibits and related programming provide a forum to investigate technique and thematic issues in the visual arts, explore new technology and display emerging and established talent. Exhibits in the gallery typically include examples drawn from our community and regionally acclaimed artists while also presenting work with national and international significance.

The Crossman Gallery website includes information on current and upcoming exhibitions, as well as Gallery hours: <http://blogs.uww.edu/crossman/>